Proudly Introducing the Hooksett PTA Board Members for 2015/2016...

President: Jennifer Marasco is serving in her second term as PTA President. Prior to this position, Jennifer served for two years as the Enrichment Coordinator and for one year as the President Elect. Jennifer and her husband John moved to Hooksett in 2007 and have two children that attend Hooksett schools. In her spare time, Jennifer can be often found at various HYAA sporting events in town cheering on her son and daughter. She enjoys volunteering in the schools and getting to know the teachers and staff. Jennifer is honored to be serving as the PTA President and looks forward to moving the PTA forward and making a difference for our children!

President Elect: OPEN POSITION

Treasurer: Kathy Bobay will begin her first term as our Treasurer. She is the mother of 2 boys, a sixth grader at Cawley and a third grader at Memorial. Kathy and her husband, Chris, have lived in Hooksett for about 14 years. In her spare time she teaches CCD at her church and she is a Den Leader in Hooksett Pack 292. She also plays darts in a league. Kathy enjoys baking, crafts, reading and cheering her boys on as they play basketball and baseball. She started volunteering as the Birthday Book Coordinator. Kathy was also the PTA Publicist for the past 3 years.

Publicity: Jennifer Macpherson is the new publicist for the PTA. Jen and her husband Dave moved to Hooksett in 2003. They have two children, Anna, a fifth grader, and Chris who is in 4th grade. She works full time at ADP in Salem, and is also the Secretary of Hooksett Lacrosse. Jen thoroughly enjoys watching her kids (and husband) play sports, horseback ride, and play in the Memorial band. She spends what little free time she has spending time with family and friends, going to concerts, being crafty, decorating and re-decorating her house, and doing anything fun!

Enrichment Coordinator: Lindsey Laliberte is entering her second year on the PTA as Enrichment Coordinator. Lindsey and her husband, Steve, have lived in Hooksett for 6 years. They have three children the oldest Noah is a fourth grader and Margo is a third grader at Memorial while Max is in kindergarten. Lindsey works as a Pharmacist and is Pharmacy Manager for Hannaford in Goffstown. She spends her extra time helping with Cub Scouts, Brownies and serves on the New Hampshire Pharmacist Association board. In any free time Lindsey can find, she enjoys painting and reading.

Secretary: Jill Cahoon is entering her second year as secretary with the PTA. She is the mother to two daughters: a second grader and a fourth grader. She is a transportation planner by day and spends her evenings shuttling her children to gymnastics and other sports and activities. She and her husband Andy moved to Hooksett in 2007. When time permits, Jill likes to cook, craft, garden, read, entertain and take on projects of all kinds. She also runs, takes fitness classes, and plays in coed softball and basketball leagues with her husband. She is very excited to help make a difference for the children of Hooksett!

Grade Level Coordinator: Cathy West is serving her 2nd year on the board. She's the mother of 2 boys; a first grader at Underhill and a fourth grader at Memorial. Cathy and her husband have lived in Hooksett for 11 years. She can be found most evenings at the soccer fields cheering on her boys and in the winter skiing with her family.

Fund Raising Coordinator: Georgette Peltak will be our fundraising coordinator this year. She and her husband Dave have lived in Hooksett for 16 years and have two children, a fifth grader at HMS and seventh grader at CMS. She started getting involved by becoming the Box Top Coordinator, Georgette also volunteers with the PTA's Birthday Books at Memorial once a month. She also served three years as our Treasurer. Georgette is very busy outside of the schools by being involved with her children's activities and as a CCD Instructor at her church.

Historian: Sarah Madsen will be serving her first year as the historian for the PTA. She and her husband Mark moved to Hooksett in 2003. They have 2 children, Emma, a 4th grader, and Mitchell who is in 1st grade. She works full time at Cigna in Hooksett. Sarah can be found watching her kids play soccer, lacrosse, baseball and dance. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family and enjoys running. She can be found at many local running events.
