

Join the PTA Now!!!

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We invite you to join the Hooksett PTA. By joining the PTA you and your family receive free admission to PTA events throughout the school year. As a PTA member you become part of a growing network of people that advocate for all children starting at the local level through the state and national levels. In addition you are also eligible to receive discounts from various retail and service providers (See the list on back). Our Mission is to provide family-centered activities, events, and programs that create a richer and even more rewarding school experience for Hooksett students. We also provide informative and meaningful programs for parents and teachers. Your (tax deductible) membership dues help pay for items such as; faculty grants, field trips, Birthday Books, and playground equipment.
